

First Things First

Stephen R. Covey's First Things First is the gold standard for time management. His principle-centered approach for prioritizing gives the reader the security to make changes and sacrifices needed in order to obtain happiness. The snapshots takes this philosophy and remasters with the entire text, and an addition of user friendly, clear and concise graphics. These added elements summarize and analyze all of the layers of behind the philosophy in an efficient manner while retaining the core message of time management and happiness.
