1891 ... Spinster librarian, Olive Wilkins, is shocked to learn of her brothers violent death at a saloon gaming table and her sister-in-laws subsequent murder, traveling far from her staid life to rescue her niece and nephew, now orphans. She arrives to find the circumstances of her brothers life deplorable and her long held beliefs of family and tradition, shaken. Accustomed to the sophistication of Philadelphia, Olive arrives in Spencer, Ohio, a rough and tumble world she is not familiar with, facing two traumatized children. Her niece and nephew, Mary and John, have been living with a neighboring farmer, widower Jacob Butler, the father of three young children of his own and a man still in pain from the recent loss of his wife. Real danger threatens Olive and Mary and John while Jacob and his own brood battle the day-to-day struggles for survival. Will Olive and Jacob find the strength to fight their battles alone or together? Will love conquer the bitterness of loss and broken dreams?

Sobre el primero de ellos, un libro, titulado: Los esenios, Qumrán, Juan Bautista y Jesús de Hartmut Stegemann (1), me aclaró bastante el personaje, pero me quedan varias dudas sobre el mismo. Cuando éstos pertenecían a la nobleza, era aún mayor el empeño por conservar esa condición de nobles hidalgos, y acreditarla debidamente mediante documentos, que la justificaran, para así transmitirlo a sus descendientes.
