

The Hare with Amber Eyes: A Hidden Inheritance

An Economist Book of the Year Costa Book Award Winner for Biography
Galaxy National Book Award Winner (New Writer of the Year Award) Edmund de Waal is a world-famous ceramicist. Having spent thirty years making beautiful pots—which are then sold, collected, and handed on—he has a particular sense of the secret lives of objects. When he inherited a collection of 264 tiny Japanese wood and ivory carvings, called netsuke, he wanted to know who had touched and held them, and how the collection had managed to survive. And so begins this extraordinarily moving memoir and detective story as de Waal discovers both the story of the netsuke and of his family, the Ephrussi, over five generations. A nineteenth-century banking dynasty in Paris and Vienna, the Ephrussi were as rich and respected as the Rothschilds. Yet by the end of the World War II, when the netsuke were hidden from the Nazis in Vienna, this collection of very small carvings was all that remained of their vast empire.

Cuando éstos pertenecían a la nobleza, era aún mayor el empeño por conservar esa condición de nobles hidalgos, y acreditarla debidamente mediante documentos, que la justificaran, para así transmitirlo a sus descendientes.
