

A Stranger in Wynnedower: A Virginia Country Roads Novel

Love and suspense with a dash of Southern Gothic... From the author of Beach Rental and Kincaids Hope Rachel Sevier, a lonely thirty-two year old inventory specialist, travels to Wynnedower Mansion in Virginia to find her brother who has stopped returning her calls. Instead, she finds Jack Wynne, the mansions bad-tempered owner. He isnt happy to meet her. When her brother took off without notice, he left Jack in a lurch. Jack has his own plans. Hes tired of being responsible for everyone and everything and wants nothing more than to shake his obligations, including the old mansion. The last thing he needs is someone wholl complicate his life further, but he agrees to allow Rachel to stay while she waits for her brother to return. At Wynnedower, Rachel becomes curious about the house and its owner. If rumors are true, the means to save Wynnedower Mansion from demolition are hidden within its walls, but the other inhabitants of Wynnedower have agendas, too. Not only may Wynnedowers treasure be stolen, but also the life of its arrogant master, unless Rachel can save them.

Sobre el primero de ellos, un libro, titulado: Los esenios, QumrÃ¡n, Juan Bautista y JesÃºs de Hartmut Stegemann (1), me aclarÃ³ bastante el personaje, pero me quedan varias dudas sobre el mismo.
