

Scot Appeal: Contemporary Scottish Romance (Under the Kilt Book 5)

Marcus Baird has been called a lot of things: Scottish bastard, heartless, ruthless, but thanks to his new neighbor, he could add ginger buff guy. The ruthless part is true, at least. His current occupation as a handyman is a front to fuel a bidding war between his former employer and the next private equity firm in his sightsan undertaking that should have all his attention, but Ivy makes him an offer he cannot refuse. When Ivy Stewart imagined losing her virginity, she was at least a decade younger, a yes away from marriage, and her perfect man would make sweet, slow love to her. Waiting for that dream to unfold has kept her watching life from the sidelines. Shes done biding her time. Its foolhardy to choose Marcus. Hes a man with secrets and an ugly past, but hes honest about what their relationship will be, charming and...hes very good with his hands. Since Marcus took Ivy into his bed, hes lived a lie. He could be the man she needs. He isnt a workaholic and he doesnt really have a heart of stone. But its only a matter of time before Ivy finds out the truth, and once again hes nothing but a Scottish bastard.
